Councillor Dobush Resigns

10 July 2009 Olds, Alberta – On Friday July 10, 2009 Councillor Darcy Dobush provided the Chief Administrative Officer with a letter resigning as a member of Council with the Town of Olds.

Legislation dictates the following regarding vacancy:

Vacancy in position of councillor

162 A council must hold a by-election to fill a vacancy on council unless

- (a) the vacancy occurs in the 6 months before a general election, or
- (b) the council consists of 6 or more councillors and the vacancy occurs
 - (i) in the 18 months before a general election and there is only one vacancy, or
 - (ii) in the 12 months before a general election and the number of councillors remaining is at least one more than the majority of the number of councillors comprising the council under section 143.

1994 cM-26.1 s162

Over the next few weeks Council will need to decide on holding a by-election or operating with six members of Council until the next general election in October of 2010. A Request for Decision on this matter will come to the next Council meeting on July 27, 2009.

DATED at the TOWN OF OLDS, in the Province of Alberta, this 13th day of July, 2009
