Welcome to the Olds Cemetery

Use this walking tour book to guide your visit of the Olds Cemetery. The stories are based on Métis history and based on obituaries published in The Olds Gazette. These are the stories of the early people of Olds, located on the Sixth Siding on the CPR line.

Walk with respect through this place of rest, avoid walking across graves. The headstones tell the story of those who lived among us and are now at rest in the Olds Cemetery. Their stories are our legacy. We remember them.

EARLY PIONEERS

Pioneer families endured extreme weather, severe cold and hard physical labor, accomplished by both men and women to build a home, bring the land under cultivation, and to feed the family. Death, disaster and tragedy were not strangers to the hardy pioneer families. The following are some of their stories as described in obituaries published in The Olds Gazette.

John Wesley Silverthorn – John was born in Lafayette County, Pennsylvania, April 27, 1854. He married Miss Ida M. Andrus in September, 1877. They had three sons and two daughters.

John spent time in the Dakotas engaged in the railroad business and farming. The Silverthorn family were there for seven years and never got a crop off. So in 1890, he and Ida headed to Olds, known as the Sixth Siding, in the North West Territories of Canada. The family made the journey in a wagon pulled by an ox, trailing their stock. When they arrived in Olds, the population was 100 people.

The townspeople wanted to name the Sixth Siding, Shannon after the very first settlers, Mary and David Shannon. Shannon's declined the honor and so the CPR chose the name Olds, after CPR traffic manager, Mr. George Olds.

The Silverthorns did everything they could to make ends meet – homesteaded, looked after the post office, built a house and took in boarders.

Mrs. Silverthorn was glad to call Olds 'home' for she had enough of roughing it over the years and enough of John's gypsy ways. Once they were settled in Olds, she said, "No more horse racing for me!"

When John became established with his feet on the ground, he donated an acre of land for the school, a half acre for the church and land for the Olds Cemetery.

William (Billy) Dean - In 1889, Billy Dean enlisted in the North West Mounted Police in Toronto for a five year stretch. He completed that period of duty and enlisted for the second term with the Olds NWMP Detachment and Police Department.

In July 1894, Constable Dean was returning to Olds by train from Calgary, where he had transferred a prisoner from the Olds NWMP Detachment. The Walter Lyman family were travelling on the same train to their homestead at Olds. That chance meeting gave way to love. Constable Billy Dean and Eva Lyman were married in July 1896.

Upon marriage, Billy left the NWMP and entered into a business partnership with Mr. Robert Hainstock to run the Hainstock and Dean General Store. It was a little building across from the Red Front Store, later they moved over to the Walker Block on Railway Street. Hainstock and Dean sold this business to W.J. Brumpton in 1900.

Hainstock and Dean General Store carried all kinds of general merchandise for homesteaders including coffins. Robert Hainstock noted that Olds needed an undertaker, so he studied to acquire the knowledge that would enable him to provide the service to the people of Olds.

By 1900 Eva and Billy Dean had a daughter Pearl and a son Billie Jr. In 1901, Gladys was born. In June, Billy and Eva had the sad misfortune to lose their two month old baby girl, Gladys who died whilst undergoing treatment at the General Hospital in Calgary.

Tragically, Eva passed away at 28 years of age, only one month after Gladys on June 23, 1901. Eva and Gladys Dean were among the first to be interred at the Olds Cemetery.

The first interred at the Olds Cemetery were the Walker twins, babies only 8 months old; R. Stanley Walker (July 20, 1894) and J. Leslie Walker (July 22, 1894).

The families had the sympathy of the whole community in their sad bereavement.

Jacob Shavalier (Sherwood) Bush

1833 – 1917

Jacob Shavalier Bush was born January 7, 1833, near Smithville, Ontario. When very young he moved with his father to Vineland, Ontario, where he lived till he became of age, finishing his education at Woodstock.

Soon after this he went to the Cariboo country in B.C., at the time of the great gold strike, when he had to walk most of the way, as the C.P.R. had not been constructed. Afterwards he went to California and then came back to Canada just before the Civil War. After spending other years in the U.S.A., he returned to Canada in 1905, and resided with his son John in this town.

He was married in the late 1860s to Miss Margaret (Maggie) Rhumore, who predeceased him. In 1907 he united with the Olds Baptist Church, and was a consistent member of that body till he died.

Stricken with paralysis nearly two years ago, from which he never recovered, he seemed to suffer very little pain, but needed and received the kindest attention from the family, who did all in their power to make him comfortable. His faith was firm to the end, and he has "gone home." He leaves five sisters and two brothers, all living in Ontario, except one brother, who is in Chicago, as well as four sons and five daughters, all of whom are in the States, except John and Arthur, who are living in Olds.

The funeral service was conducted by his pastor, Rev. Jas. Desson, first at the house and then at the church, where a number of friends met to pay their last respects to his remains.

Mrs. S.G. (Abbie M. Drake) Craig

1859 – 1933

The passing of Mrs. Abbie M. Craig, the beloved wife of Mr. C.G. Craig, which occurred at the family residence on Monday morning, July 10, is the third of Olds' pioneers to receive the final call this week. Her death occurring, following a brief illness, as the result of an attack of paralysis, broadcast a wave of sadness over the town and district as the sad news spread rapidly. She was a self-sacrificing noble woman, a most loving wife and mother, an active church worker, and a devoted life-long advocate to the temperance cause.

Mrs. Abbie M. (Drake) Craig was born in Ashland, New Hampshire, U.S.A. on May 30 1859, and received her education in Boston, Mass. On September 14, 1887, she married Cauldwell G. Craig and moved to Compton, Quebec. For twenty years she was active in church circles at Compton and particularly the work of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union (WCTU). Leaving that city with her family in 1907, she left behind a host of friends, and on arriving at Olds it is well known how she continued her active church work. She was presented with a life membership of the WCTU. She loved her home, music and flowers, and was in turn loved for her loyalty to her friends and kindness to all.

She is survived by her husband, Mr. C.G. Craig, and three sons, viz., Prescott, William D., both of Olds, and Dr. Kenneth L. Craig of Vancouver. A host of friends mourn her death and of her it can be truly said, "She was loved by all."

The United Church was well filled with sympathizers at the funeral service, held Wednesday afternoon, the service being in charge of the pastor Rev. F.E.H. James, who was assisted by Dr. George W. Kerby of Calgary and Dr. Thomas Powell of Calgary, both of whom have been happy in friendship with the Craig family for many years. Dr. Kerby and Dr. Powell paid fitting tribute to the memory of the deceased. Relatives from Three Hills, Edmonton, Calgary and at home occupying the mourners' pews numbered about thirty.

After the service, there was a lengthy funeral cortege that wended its way to the Olds Cemetery. Interment was made in the family plot. Floral tributes were very numerous, the grave presenting a scene of rare bloom, silent emblems to one held in the highest esteem. At the conclusion of the committal service, several ladies, all members of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, filed past the grave and each deposited white ribbon, symbol of purity, on the garden covered grave.

Pallbearers were C.P. Craig, W.D. Craig, Dr. Kenneth Craig, sons of the deceased, and a nephew, Mr. R.A. Craig.

June 11, 1936

Cauldwell Gardner Craig

1859 – 1936

On Wednesday morning, June 3, 1936, there passed peacefully, to a well earned rest, one who for many years has held a place of honor and respect in the community.

Cauldwell Gardner Craig was born near the town of Leeds, Quebec in the year 1859. As a young man he worked as an engineer on the Quebec Central Railroad and on one occasion was instrumental in saving the life of a little child who had strayed on to the track. For this brave act he was given recognition in the papers of Quebec.

In 1887 Mr. Craig was married to Miss Abbie Mary Drake of Compton and in that same year he went into partnership with his brother "S. J." and opened a general store in Compton. In 1907 Mr. and Mrs. Craig, with their three sons moved west and settled in Olds and ever since that time "C.G." as he was generally known has held a place of respect in the community.

Throughout his life C.G. Craig was always interested in the higher and finer things. He was a great reader and even to his last days kept up-to-date in matters of current interest. At all times gentle and courteous in his dealings with people he has endeared himself to a great host of friends all of whom are willing to testify to his influence for good. He was always interested in the cause of the Christian church and for many years both in the East and West he served in an official capacity in the Methodist Church and later in the United Church of Canada. In his thinking he was deeply spiritual, and during his last illness he spoke much of spiritual things. For many years Mr. Craig suffered from a weakness of heart. The passing of his dear wife about three years ago was a great loss to him and ever since that time in his increasing weakened condition he has, looked forward to the great reunion in "the land that is fairer than day."

In the passing of Mr. Craig a Christian gentleman has gone from our midst; the community has lost a valued citizen, and all of us who knew him have lost a counsellor and a friend. His passing translates a faithful workman and leaves behind a beautiful memory.

The funeral was held from the United Church on Thursday last. It was conducted by Rev. F.E.H. James assisted by the Rev. Dr. Powell, President of the Alberta Conference and an old friend of the family.

Mr. Craig leaves to mourn his passing, three sons: Wm. D. and C. Prescott of Olds, and Dr. Kenneth of Vancouver. The pallbearers were, J.A.M. Craig, Prince Albert, Saskatchewan, L.H. Robertson, R.C. Robertson, Dr. Thomas Sawdon, C.D. Whyte, all of Three Hills, R. A. Craig and H. B. Craig, Olds, all nephews of the deceased and C. Gardner Craig, a grandson.

"Servant of God, well done!"

Mrs. S. J. (Maria Drake) Craig

1863 – 1911

Death of Mrs. S.J. Craig

On Monday evening last occurred the death of Mrs. S.J. (Maria) Craig, after an illness of several months. Mrs. Craig was very popular and a great worker for the cause of temperance, and is well known throughout the prairie provinces, especially in Alberta, having been president of the Provincial W.C.T.U. (Woman's Christian Temperance Union) for several years, and was, at the time of her death, vice president. Deceased was forty seven years of age, and is survived by her husband, S.J. Craig, her daughter Marion, and her sister Mrs. C.G. Craig, all residents of Olds. Mrs. Craig as a temperance worker and member of the Methodist Church, will be greatly missed and her death will be regretted throughout the west. Mrs. Craig was beloved wherever known and the family and relatives have the sympathy of the entire community in their sad loss. The funeral is being held from the home, 3rd St. east, as we go to press.

Brief Synopsis of Mrs. S.J. Craig's Life

Maria Drake was born in Ashland Co. New Hampshire, July 25, 1863, and was educated at Ladies College, Compton Que. She was married to S.J. Craig on Sept. 5, 1883, and died at her home in Olds, Alta., July 3, 1911.

Shortly after her marriage this most estimable lady entered heartily into temperance work, early rising to prominence, she served as President of W.C.T.U. in Compton, and west counties for a number of years. Subsequently as Provincial President in Alberta and Sask. for five years, and as Vice President two years. At Olds Mrs. Craig has been Vice President for nearly nine years, and has been the pillar, together with our esteemed Mrs. Brown, of the W.C.T.U. here. Her last work, until she was taken home.

It can be truly said that our beloved standard-bearer has given twenty five years of her life to propagation and leadership at the W.C.T.U. branch of the temperance cause, in the places mentioned, a record that few, comparatively speaking, have made.

In the discharge of her official duty, as Provincial President, our noble leader was untiring in her efforts to propagate the good cause in our new land, in very many parts of which, the happy results of her labour can be found. In 1902 Mrs. Craig arranged for the first Provincial Convention, afterwards held in Calgary in 1904. The next convention was held in Red Deer in 1905.

Who can estimate the value of a good work begun? Consider the value of a noble consecrated life; a life reaching out to suffering mankind, the influence of which, is as to the gentle breeze to the dying ember, and as the warm rays of the sun, wooing again to life, that which seems to be dead. How sublime is the thought that the influence of a good life, does not terminate on the shores of time; but lives and flows on for ever, through the countless ages of the happy bye and bye.

We can truly say of our dear departed sister, that she was the possessor of very many superior traits of character, and was one of the excellent of the earth, never seemed more happy than when talking of the prosperity of the work, and methods for its further promotion. In Mrs. Craig's death the temperance cause has sustained a great loss.

Peculiarly adapted to the work, her genial manner alone was a drawing power. Hers was that most desirable of characters, where we find blended true nobility, and consequent lowliness of manner. Many, and beautiful, were the floral offerings, tributes of love, and respect that were laid on the lowly mound – they will fade, but the happy spirit dwells where fadeless is the bloom.

*Transported with the glories and splendour of the heavenly world,
"Our loved ones would not come again,
For there shall be no night there,
And the city had no need of the sun,
For the glory of God shall be the light."
Mrs. H. P. M.*

W. Harold Davey

1911 - 1936

Large Crowd Pay Tribute to Popular Young Man

The news of the death of W. Harold Davey which occurred in the Holy Cross Hospital, Calgary in the early hours of May 21 was received at Olds with a general sadness.

A young man, 25 years of age, although crippled from infancy, this native born son of Olds became one of the most beloved citizens by his jovial nature, fine sense of humor and kindly disposition. Harold was taken to the city hospital about a month ago, and hopes for recovery were entertained by the family and near friends. His condition however gradually became weaker and yet his passing was somewhat unexpected as his father returned to Olds from the sick bed Wednesday night, but Mrs. Davey who was with her son continuously had to telephone for Mr. Davey's return as death hovered near.

He is survived by his parents Mr. and Mrs. T.H. Davey, a sister, Miss Doreen, an uncle, Mr. Lorne Davey, an aunt Miss A. McLean of New York, who arrived in Calgary 8 hours after her nephew's passing; and a cousin Ray of Fleet, Alta.

The funeral service was held in the United Church, Olds at 1:45 p.m. Sunday, and conducted by Rev. F.E.H. James. The large church was taxed to capacity (many not being able to gain admittance) with sympathetic friends, and the funeral cortege which wended its way to the Olds Cemetery where interment was made, was one of the longest ever seen in Olds. The floral tributes were many and beautiful which required a special car to remove them to the burial plot.

Pallbearers were very special friends of the deceased viz, H.A. Bury, Olds, Basil Cole, Harry Downes, George Graburn, George Church and Robert Church all of Calgary.

Funeral arrangements were in the charge of the Gooder & Son Funeral Home.

Isabella Duff

1876 – 1934

Following a brief illness resulting from paralytic attack, Isabella Duff, beloved wife of Mr. John Duff, passed away at her home on Thursday at 11:15 a.m., Jan 18. The news of her death spread rapidly throughout the town and district, causing general sorrow. Her age was 57 years, 8 months and 11 days.

She was proud of her nationality, which she termed Irish Canadian, and was born at Petrolia, Ontario. With her father (Fleming Wilson) three brothers and three sisters, she came to Innisfail in the spring of 1892. Her marriage to Mr. John Duff took place on Jan. 4, 1893, moving to British Columbia where Mr. Duff was CPR station agent. Two years later they returned to Innisfail, and following a two year residence there, moved to Morley. It was on Christmas day in 1899 that Mr. and Mrs. Duff came to Olds where they have since resided.

To the union four children were born, Fred J. Duff of Olds; Edward F. Duff, now deceased; Stella L. Duff (Mrs. R. Pidgeon, Olds) and Aileen M. Duff (Mrs. Holloway) deceased.

During her 34 years at Olds the deceased took a very active part in community life. She was a life member of the WCTU; past president of St John's Church Women's Association; charter member of the Bridge and Literary Club, also a charter member of the Mountain View Chapter No.1 O.E.S., of which she had the high honor of being Worthy Matron several times. In 1912 Mrs. Duff was elected to the highest office within the gift of the Eastern Star, that of the Worthy Grand Matron of the Grand Chapter of Alberta, an office which she held with credit to herself and honor to the Order, which is the largest ladies' organization in the world. She had the distinction of being the first Grand Matron of the first Grand Chapter of the O.E.S. in Canada, and in this regard became one of the best known, most loved and respected of women. In pursuance of her duties to the Order she has travelled more than nine thousand miles. She was an exceptionally fine type of Canadian womanhood, a true wife, a loving mother, a fine neighbor and faithful friend.

Surviving members of her parental family are three brothers, W. G. Wilson, Innisfail; James L. Wilson, Stettler; Robert O. Wilson, Gadsby, and four sisters, Mrs. Luella McCutcheon, Toronto; Mrs. J. McInroy, Aldergrove, B.C.; Mrs. James Karr, Tulsa, Oklahoma; Mrs. J. McIntosh, Richmond, Michigan.

The funeral held on Sunday, Jan. 21, was one of the largest ever to take place in Olds, more sympathizers being unable to enter the crowded Anglican Church than would have filled a much larger church. Rev. A.D. Currie conducted a beautiful funeral service. In the funeral procession from the home to the church friends were present from Gadsby, Stettler, Red Deer, Innisfail, Bowden, Didsbury, Carstairs, Calgary, Okotoks and Three Hills, to pay their last respects to one dearly loved. Floral tributes were numerous and very beautiful. Pallbearers were L. Hammer Sr., L.H. Walkley, J.H. Johnson, A.C. Bury, J. Schrader Sr. and J. Strath.

where the daisies nod,
And the clover hangs
it's head,
And the wild bird comes
And the wild bee hums
She fought the fight –
She kept the faith –
Her name shines
bright and clear,
And her memory lives
in loving hearts
Which will hold it ever dear,
The good wife sleeps.*

*The winter snow
shall wrap her couch
In a mantle
broad and white,
A spotless robe
for a spotless soul
Who has kept her armor bright;
And the burning stars
which nightly watch
And keep guard over all,
Shall keep the grave
where the good wife waits
To rise at the Master's call.*

The Olds Gazette, Mountain View News
February 3, 1966

Dr. C. C. Hartman

1886 – 1966

Dr. C.C. Hartman, a practicing physician in this community for the past fifty– five years, passed away quietly in the Olds Hospital Thursday, January 27th.

Clare Clifford Hartman was born at Aurora, Ontario, August 6, 1886, the son of a dairy farmer. At the age of nine he started his schooling in a small rural school completing his high school in Aurora. After five years in the Faculty of Medicine at Toronto University, during which time he was a member of the track team and president of his class, he graduated shortly before his twenty-first birthday. He served his Internship at Toronto General Hospital, after which he spent some time in the mining and lumbering areas of Northern Ontario. In 1910 he came to Olds and began his practice of medicine.

Many an interesting story he could tell of those early years of his practice when he answered calls and made perilous trips as far east as Trochu and west to the Yaha Tinda Ranch, travelling by horseback, California cart, Bennett buggy and cutter to perform minor operations and deliver babies in the then primitive farm homes. One of his proudest boasts was that he had cared for as many as five generations of the same family.

In co-operation with the late Dr. Arthur Mann, he assumed his full share of the responsibility in maintaining and operating the town's earliest hospitals for it was not until the mid twenties that the Olds' General Hospital which was located immediately west of the Olds United Church on 50th St. was officially opened.

During the flu epidemic of 1918, along with other doctors, nurses and volunteer helpers, he was on call night and day caring for patients in their homes and at the then O. S. A., where one of the buildings had been converted into an emergency hospital.

During World War II, he and the late Dr. Ruth Johnstone Harvey worked tirelessly to serve an area formerly served by five doctors.

In addition to the demands of his practice, Dr. Hartman showed his concern for civic matters. He served on the local school board, was an active member of the Olds Board of Trade, Medical Officer of Health and District Coroner. He was a Past Master of Mountain View Lodge No. 16, A. F. & A. M.: Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Alberta, A. F. & A. M. and Past Patron of Mountain View Chapter No. 1, Order of the Eastern Star. Always a lover of the great outdoors, his relaxation was found in hunting, fishing and curling.

In the later years of his practice, he enjoyed the cooperation and the affectionate relationship of the doctors of the Olds Associate Clinic who, in 1962 saw fit to honor him on the completion of 55 years in the practice of medicine with a testimonial dinner and presentation. In 1964, he was presented with the Kiwanis International Distinguished Citizen Award by the members of the Kiwanis Club of Olds. This award was presented in recognition of his service to the community.

Dr. Hartman was a man who had a deep sympathy for his fellow man because he had known great personal sorrow. In 1917 he lost by death, his first wife, Florence, and their infant son. In 1919, he married Mabel Cox of Bowmanville, Ontario, who in the prime of life was stricken with paralysis and remained an invalid until her death in 1961. In 1943, his son, Clifford left school to serve with the RCAF (Royal Canadian Air Force) and was reported missing and presumed dead in a flight over Germany.

In the summer of 1960, in company with Mr. and Mrs. Tom Smith and family, he enjoyed visiting many parts of England. Returning from this holiday and with the loss of Mrs. Hartman, he accepted the quiet routine of hospital visitations and office consultations.

He delivered the last of his many, many babies in December, 1965 and though knowing he had fallen victim to an incurable disease he was in his office until six days before his death. Thus he gained the goal of the vision he had of his life to bring help and comfort to others, to serve and be useful until the end and to depart this world quietly and with dignity, a burden to no one.

He is survived by his sorrowing family, his daughter, Helen and son- in- law, Tom Smith and his grandchildren, Alan and Rickey, Marilyn, Bill and Kathy Smith and his sister, Miss Laura Hartman, all of Olds.

Funeral services were conducted on Monday, January 3 at 2 p.m. from the Olds United Church with Rev. James Forsythe officiating. Burial was in the family plot of the Olds Cemetery. During the service at the church, Norman Craig, Master of Mountain View Masonic Lodge read a memorial eulogy on behalf of the fraternity which had attended in a body. Also attending in a body were the officers and members of Mountain View Chapter No. 1 Order of the Eastern Star and the doctors and staff of the Olds Hospital.

When the history of Olds and district is finally written, the name of Dr. C.C. Hartman will shine forth as one of her respected and beloved citizens, a real pioneer. With his passing we come to the end of an era in the medical history of this community.

*He was physician, friend and counsellor,
He held no cult of new and subtle arts,
Yet his keen skill, their pretence might have shamed.*

*Father confessor to a thousand hearts,
He solved more woes than those their bodies claimed,
Strong, human, wise, he eased their souls
of pain,
And made both flesh and spirit whole again.*

Honorary pallbearers were Dr. George Burland, George Clark, W.D. Craig, Dr. Phil Galbraith, Wm. Jackson and Frank Wong. Active pallbearers were Russell Berscht, Bob Cruickshank, Harold Jensen, Ralph Maybank, W.R. Newsom and Dr. Dave Shaw.

Mountain View Funeral Chapel of Olds was in charge of funeral arrangements.

Clifford Lamont

The sad messenger, "Death," came to the home of Mr. and Mrs. A.D. Lamont on Thursday, April 21, and called away their infant son, aged three months and ten days. The little one had been ailing only a few days, and although medical aid was summoned, he passed away to the Great Beyond, sudden heart failure being the cause.

The funeral service, conducted by Rev. Roxburgh, was held at the family residence on Sunday, April 24 and the interment was in the Olds Cemetery.

The heartfelt sympathy of the community is extended the parents in their bereavement.

and former president of the Alberta Pharmaceutical Association. He also acted as Registrar– Treasurer and Inspector of the above Association for several years. He was an early organizer of the 24th of May Sports Day, Past President of the Olds Athletic Club and always prominent in hockey and curling circles. To any causes with which he was allied he gave his valuable time, his wholehearted financial support and his inspiring enthusiasm which carried them along on the zestful current of success.

With the passing of “Matt,” as we familiarly called him, Olds will never be quite the same. He had shared our laughter and our burdens and has left us something of his own courageous and untiring spirit by which he will always be remembered.

The last rites were held on Tuesday, October 20, from the Presbyterian Church at 2:30 p.m. Local business places closed their doors for two hours in order to attend.

Representatives from the Druggists’ Association, the Masonic Order, the Eastern Star and the Elks’ Lodge assisted in the impressive service, following the flower– laden casket and helping to carry the many floral offerings which filled the front of the church.

Mr. Maybank’s two favorite hymns, “Lead Kindly Light” and “Abide with Me,” were sung. Miss Margaret Ogilvie rendered very beautifully the solo, “He Wipes the Tears from Every Eye” with soft organ accompaniment by Mr. Maybank’s old friend, W.C. Gooder.

The graveside services were conducted by the local Masonic Lodge with C.M. Becker officiating. The Rev. A.L. Elliot of the United Church, and Rev. R.A. Sinclair of the Presbyterian Church gave a joint service which was both simple and impressive.

Acting as pallbearers were George Clark, A.C. Bury, James Strath, W.H. Miller, Hans Hanson and John Currie. H. W. Gooder of the Little Temple was in charge of the funeral arrangements.

Mary Wong Pond

1882 – 1946

Mary Wong Pond Dies Suddenly at Her Home

Very suddenly on Tuesday at 1:30 while preparing for dinner, Mrs. Wong Pond collapsed at her home here and despite the efforts of Dr. Hartman who was immediately called, she failed to recover.

Mrs. Wong came to Canada from China in 1913 and has lived in Olds since that time. Her cheerful personality endeared her to a wide circle of friends and acquaintances in the Olds district as well as the traveling public and tourists.

She received her Christian education in China and on her arrival in Olds, attended the Olds School of Agriculture for two years, where she graduated with honors and was a great favourite with both the faculty and students.

Many deserving people as well as the children have reason to remember the many kindnesses she handed out in her own quiet way and she will be very much missed in the district.

She is survived by her husband Wong Pond, her two sons, Frank Wong and Edmund Wong and five grandchildren. One brother in China is the only one left of her family.

The sympathy of the people of Olds and district goes out to the bereaved upon the loss of a loving mother and splendid woman.

The funeral takes place today (on Thursday) at 2:30 from the Orme Funeral Home with Rev C.G. Ashdown Officiating. Interment was made in the Olds Cemetery.

Wong Pond

1880 – 1954

Last Rites for Wong Pond

In the passing of Mr. Wong Pond in the Olds Municipal Hospital on Thursday night, February 25, Olds has lost another of its pioneer citizens. Mr. Wong passed away following a lingering illness. He was 74 years of age.

Mr. Wong was born in Canton, China and came to Canada in 1902 with his father and settled in Olds. With his father, Wong Yet, the late Mr. Wong operated a restaurant soon after coming to Olds. In 1914, Mr. Wong left his father in Olds to run the restaurant while he himself went to Didsbury where he ran the Rosebud Hotel. Prior to his departure to Didsbury, Mr. Wong was presented with an engraved watch by the citizens of Olds for being one of the outstanding members of the community. In 1916, Mr. Wong returned from Didsbury and again was associated with his father. Shortly after, Wong Yet became ill, but refused to undergo an operation and returned to China where he passed away. In 1922 Wong Pond opened the present Olds Billiard Hall and in 1925 he opened the Mayfair Theatre. Both of these he disposed of only a few years ago.

Wong was one of Olds' great boosters and as a member of the Olds Board of Trade, he along with other old timers like the late Matt Maybank took part in the famous "Battle of Olds." Wong was a money maker and never hesitated to spend it. He was one of the backers of the Hunter Oil Well and took part in the financing of some of the wells in the early days of Turner Valley. He was a man of high ideals and was a "square shooter" all his life.

He was a member of the Presbyterian Church, a booster for the Olds Curling Club in which he was an active curler for years, a member of the executive of the Wong Society of Canada, an active member of the Chinese Nationalist League and a member of the Liberal Party.

He was a great gardener and his garden plots were his pride and joy. For the past fifteen years, he had more time to enjoy his hobby as he retired from his familiar post at the front end of the Public Lunch Cafe and turned over most of the responsibilities to his son, Frank who has been associated with him for many years.

Left to mourn his passing are two sons Frank of Olds and Eddie of Edmonton; one brother in Boston; one brother in New York; one sister in Canton, China; three grandsons; two granddaughters and two great grandsons. He was predeceased by his wife in July 1946.

Funeral services were conducted from the Orme Funeral Chapel on Wednesday, March 3, with Rev. C. Ashdown of Ponoka officiating. Interment was in the family plot of the Olds Cemetery, at the side of his wife. Pallbearers were George Clark, R. Newsom, W.H. Miller, J.E. McLeod, N. Leatherdale and Jack Ross.

Reverend James Samis

The death occurred on Tuesday of the Rev. James Samis. The news came as a sudden shock, for the deceased gentleman, apart from the infirmities arising from advanced age, was in his usual health up to within a very short time of the sad occurrence.

There are five sons and two daughters. The sons are: Alderman A.J. Samis, Calgary; H.A. Samis, Olds; A.W. Samis, Medicine Hat; George Samis, Sarnia Ont., and F.J. Samis, Areata, Cal. The daughters are: Mrs. John Bush, Olds, and Mrs. McCann, Omaha.

The deceased has been a leading figure in Baptist circles for many years. He was an earnest preacher, indefatigable worker and was much loved as a pastor. He was a native of Ontario, but had filled pastorates in many places, and had spent the past fourteen years in Olds.

Rev. James Samis – “I am the very Reverend James Samis – native of the province of Ontario. I filled many pastorates in many places before settling in Olds.

My wife, Sophia and I came to Olds in 1892, looking for farm land for me and my boys. I hopped off the train just north of Olds because I liked what I saw – the gently sloping parkland. So me and my sons – Frank, Adoniram and Herb, we took adjoining homesteads on a section of land that came to be known as the Samis District.

We worked hard – homesteading, house building and barn raising. I was pitched both as a carpenter and a preacher, travelling the countryside in a lumber wagon.

I preached my first sermon shortly after I arrived in the Olds District. I founded and built the first Baptist churches of Olds and Innisfail.”

Sophia Samis
1856 – 1933

On Friday, October 13, Mr. John Bush was notified by phone that Mrs. Sophia (Wallington) Samis was sinking fast at the Old Folks' Convalescent Home at Calgary. Mr. Bush made a quick trip to Calgary, and was present with the aged lady a few hours before she passed away, which was in the early hours of Saturday morning, October 14.

Her death terminated many years of affliction as an invalid, eight of which were spent in the Calgary home, where she was a popular patient of the nursing staff and highly respected. Born in 1856 in Lambton, Ontario, she was in her 77th year. Her husband, the late Rev. James Samis, predeceased her in 1907. The deceased was ever faithful to her home duties, a loving mother and a constant worker.

The remains were removed to the local funeral home to await the funeral, which was held Monday afternoon. The service was held in the Baptist Church, those occupying the mourners' pew being Mr. and Mrs. John Bush, Miss Evelyn Bush, Mrs. A.W. Samis and Mr. H.A. Samis. Rev. D.A. MacLaurin of Calgary had charge of the church service, also at the graveside in the Olds Cemetery, where interment was made in the family plot.

Percy Wosley Shackleton

1899 – 1955

Funeral services for one of Olds earliest residents, Percy Wosley Shackleton were held from the Orme Funeral Chapel last Saturday afternoon, December 24, with Rev. James of the Baptist Church officiating.

The late Percy Shackleton died December 21 following a brief heart attack, a condition from which he had been suffering for some months, but his death was unexpected.

Sherwin Robinson was guest soloist, singing, "In the Glory of His Presence," and members of Mt. View Masonic Lodge took part in the committal service

The late Percy Shackleton was born in early Olds in 1899 and here grew up as a young man, taking his schooling here. Throughout his life he maintained a keen interest in things spiritual and was well conversant with his Bible. He was a member of both Mt. View Lodge No.16 A.F. & A.M. and Olds Elks Lodge No. 100.

Early in his life Percy was attached to things electrical, and carried among other things a first class projectionist certificate and was the town Electrical Inspector. In association with others he operated Olds' first power plant which was later sold to Calgary Power Co. During those early years he erected and maintained, intermittently, a broadcasting station in Olds. His interest in the electrical field never waned and even up until a few months ago was interested in some contract work. Percy had the great quality of doing well whatever task he undertook and his experience as a craftsman in all the fields he worked is attested to. At one time he managed and operated the McLean Cartage which he subsequently sold.

He was predeceased by his father in 1945 and his mother in 1954. Besides, there are three sisters and three brothers surviving.

Officiating as pallbearers were A. Bird, A. Watt, J. Beckley, G. Bosworth, A. Owens and G. Warren. Interment was in the Olds Cemetery.

Mary Shannon

1866 - 1946

Olds First White Lady Dies At Home Here

Mrs. Mary Shannon after a long serious illness was called to her eternal rest at about 10 o'clock on Friday evening August 30th. Mary Shannon was the widow of the late David Shannon who pre-deceased her five years ago. She moved with her late husband in 1888 to B.C. and thence to Olds, where she resided continuously to her death. She was born in Smith Falls, Ontario, the daughter of Martin and Hannah Boyle and was the last surviving member of the Boyle family.

February 18th, 1887 she was united in marriage to David Shannon and to this union there were born six children, four sons and two daughters, all who survive her. She had two grandchildren and relatives in Cleveland, Ohio. Two sons served in the Cdn Army during World War 1.

Being of a very kind disposition she led a busy and useful life. She was the first pioneer woman to reside in Olds – coming here at a time when it was almost nothing. She had charge of mails for the district while residing in the C. & E. station and in her long robust life nursed many a child and down trodden family, when 'physicians' were not available. She carried on this humanitarian work in her farm home and extended the flame of kindness to all who came her way.

Funeral services were held from Olds, 10 a.m. Wednesday Sept. 4. St. Stephen's Catholic Church, Rev. Father MacLellan officiated. The pallbearers were: A.E. Henson, A.T. Bradley, Guy Hamilton, William Jensen, Ernest White and Fred Duff of Olds. Interment was in the family plot at the Olds Cemetery.

The following litany was sent by air mail from Cleveland, Ohio, by a niece,
Sister M. Francina of St. Anne's hospital:

When the shadows of death o'er my pillow are falling,
And phantoms of darkness my spirit appalling,
When earth's fading scenes from my vision shall flee,
Then merciful Jesus, have mercy on me.
When close o'er me bending the Angel of Death,
Shall touch my cold brow with his life withering breath;
When panting and weary I languish for Thee,
Then merciful Jesus, have mercy on me.
When the pallor of death my wan face shall o'er spread,
And the friends who yet love me encircle my bed,
Let their prayers and their tears be propitious with Thee;
And merciful Jesus, have mercy on me.

Amen

THE MÉTIS STORY

In the Olds Cemetery, we acknowledge that part of our community history has been untold. Elder Doreen Bergum, of Metis Nation of Alberta, Region III shares some of story of Metis families resting here – both in marked graves and unmarked graves.

Métis settlements in North East Alberta include: St Paul des Métis, Kekino Métis Settlement, Fishing Lake Settlement, Elizabeth Settlement, Cold Lake, Bonnyville, Lac La Biche and Tail Creek at Big Valley.

The Métis people were an oppressed society. The Canadian Government took and sold Script Land from Métis families and forced them off the land in North East Alberta. The land was taken by the government and given to the white European settlers. It was against the law for the Métis people to practice their Métis culture. Finally the Métis people were recognized as Canadian Citizens on April 16, 2016. In 2019, the Métis language, Michif, was listed as one of the Indigenous languages that will be saved. These steps will help to restore the Métis Culture.

Métis families lived in Sundre and Olds dating back to 1943. They came to this area to live and for jobs in logging camps and on ranches – working where they could to support their families.

Family names include: Dumont, Piche, Tremblay, Quinn, Swain, Regnier, Cardwell, Scarlet, Champagne, Flamond, Laderoute, Dolan, Adam, Coutreille, Cunningham, McGillis, Trottrier, Cinnamon, Jeome, Poitras, Jenkins, Ghostkeeper, Wells, Cardinal, Vaness, Landry, Gardipiy, MacKenzie and Dougan. Many of them were buried in the Olds Cemetery.

Ben Poitras (1925 – 1994), and Private Fred Poitras (1912 – April 6, 1963) are buried in the Olds Cemetery; both served in WWII.
