

Prepared By: Human Resources

Effective Date: July 8, 2019
Council Resolution No.: 19-218

References: Alberta Human Rights Act
Occupational Health and Safety Code Part 27

POLICY STATEMENT

The Town of Olds is committed to ensuring that all its employees are treated with dignity, consideration and respect in the workplace.

PURPOSE

To adopt a proactive approach to the prevention of Violence, Bullying and Harassment in the workplace, and outline the expectations of workers and the Town in reporting and responding to Violence, Bullying and Harassment incidents if they occur.

SCOPE AND GUIDELINES

This policy applies to the following people and places:

1. Town of Olds Workers;
2. Town buildings, facilities, sites, offices or work environments;
3. Locations visited by employees while traveling on Town-related business; including but not limited to conferences, meetings, vendor/supplier or customer sites; and
4. Locations of work-based social gatherings.

DEFINITIONS

Bullying: a behaviour that harms, intimidates, offends, degrades or humiliates another person, that may be intended to intimidate, offend, degrade, or humiliate a particular person or group. Bullying may include, but is not limited to the following:

- (a) Verbal Bullying - name calling, put-downs, sarcasm, teasing, spreading rumours, persistent and excessive criticism of employees or their work without justification, religion, threats, yelling, making reference to one's culture, ethnicity, race, religion, age, disability, homophobic tendencies [prejudiced behaviour against a person's actual or perceived sexual orientation], transphobic tendencies [prejudiced behaviour against a person's actual or perceived gender identity or gender expression], or other unwanted comments.
- (b) Social Bullying - exclusion, gossip, ganging up, mobbing, scapegoating, humiliating others, gestures or graffiti intended to put others down
- (c) Physical Bullying - hitting, poking, pinching, chasing, shoving, coercing, damaging property, or destroying.
- (d) Cyber Bullying - the use of technology to intimidate, put down or spread rumours about someone, or supporting deliberate, hostile and hurtful behaviour towards an individual or groups of individuals. It can occur within a peer group or between groups.

Discrimination: is treatment or consideration of, or making a distinction in favour of or against, a person based on the group, class, or category to which the person is perceived to belong. This includes, but is not limited to, differential treatment or any action or policy having an adverse impact on an individual or group of individuals based on Protected Grounds.

Harassment:

- (a) Any single incident or repeated incidents of objectionable or unwelcome conduct, comment, bullying or action by a person that the person knows or ought reasonably to know will or would cause offence or humiliation to a worker, or adversely affects the worker's health and safety.
- (b) Includes, but is not limited to, unwelcome behaviour, physical contact, comments, jokes, gestures, posters, articles or treatment in general that offends, demeans, or causes personal humiliation, or embarrassment regardless of the intent of the action.
- (c) Harassment does not include consensual relationships, mutually welcome social invitations or interactions, or constructive feedback about work performance.

But excludes any reasonable conduct of an employer or supervisor in respect of the management of workers or a work site.

Protected Grounds: The Alberta Human Rights Act prohibits discrimination based on the protected grounds of race, colour, ancestry, place of origin, religious beliefs, gender, age, physical disability, mental disability, marital status, family status, source of income, sexual orientation, gender identity, and gender expression.

Sexual Harassment:

- (a) Unwanted sexual advances, unwanted requests for sexual favours, and other unwanted verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature.
- (b) Includes but is not limited to: pinching, patting, rubbing or leering, "dirty" jokes, pictures or pornographic materials, comments, suggestions, innuendoes, requests or demands of a sexual nature.

Violence: whether at a work site or work-related, means the threatened, attempted or actual conduct of a person that causes or is likely to cause physical or psychological injury or harm, and includes domestic or sexual violence. Violence may include but is not limited to the following:

- (a) Stranger Violence – when the individual is not known to the worker or the Town of Olds, or both.
- (b) Worker to worker Violence – when the incident involves two or more Town of Olds workers.
- (c) Client or customer to worker Violence – when the individual is known to the worker or the Town of Olds, or both.
- (d) Domestic Violence – is a pattern of coercive tactics, which can include physical, psychological, sexual, economic or emotional abuse, perpetrated by one person against an adult intimate partner, with the goal of establishing and maintaining power and control over the victim.

Worker: means a paid employee of the Town of Olds or a volunteer under the direct supervision of a Town of Olds Supervisor.

RESPONSIBILITIES

The Town of Olds ("the Town") is committed to eliminating or, as reasonably practicable, controlling the hazards of workplace Violence, Bullying and Harassment. The Town also has a duty under the Occupational Health and Safety (OHS) Code to:

- Develop policies and procedures respecting potential workplace Violence;
- Instruct workers on how to recognize workplace Violence;
- Communicate the policy and procedures related to workplace Violence;
- Conduct hazard assessments;
- Develop appropriate responses to workplace Violence; and

- Develop procedures for reporting, investigating and documenting incidents of workplace Violence.

STANDARDS

The Town is committed to working in collaboration with its management, and workers, to provide a safe workplace. All parties shall be prepared to actively work together to address the issue of workplace Violence, Bullying and Harassment.

Workers

Town of Olds workers shall adhere to this policy and shall not subject any other person or property to threats or Violence, or both.

Acts of Harassment, Bullying, or Violence against any Town worker, by a Town worker or against Town property or member of the public are unacceptable conduct and are considered a serious offence for which discipline or appropriate action shall be imposed.

Workers are obligated to refrain from causing or participating in Violence, Bullying or Harassment. Workers are encouraged to report an act of Violence, Bullying or Harassment.

No individual filing a complaint will be penalized nor subjected to any prejudicial treatment as a result of making a complaint. No correspondence pertaining to the complaint will be placed on the complainant's personnel file.

No employee shall take retaliatory action against a complainant with the intention of dissuading or punishing an individual for participating in the complaint process. Sanctions may be imposed for any such retaliation. Retaliation against individuals participating in the complaint process should not be confused with any sanction which may be imposed for making false allegations.

Whether or not any complaint has been made, when concerns regarding a worksite are brought to the attention of the Town, the Town may direct a systemic review of any worksite, to ensure that employees are able to work free from violence, personal and or sexual harassment.

This policy is not intended to discourage a worker from exercising the worker's rights pursuant to any other law, including the Alberta Human Rights Act.

Employer

As an employer, the Town has a duty to:

- Warn and protect workers, contractors and the public when there is an issue, or potential issue, of Violence, Bullying or Harassment in the workplace;
- Investigate reported incidents of Violence, Bullying and Harassment in an objective and timely manner;
- Take necessary action when Violence, Bullying or Harassment has occurred or is likely to occur; and
- Provide support for workers that fall victim to Violence, Bullying or Harassment in the workplace.

Discipline or appropriate action may be taken against a worker or an individual for making a complaint, if the complaint is made maliciously or without reasonable and probable grounds.

All reports of Violence, Bullying or Harassment shall be resolved quickly, confidentially and fairly via the investigations process and suitable corrective actions.

Throughout the complaint or investigation process, to the greatest extent possible, reasonable efforts shall be made to respect the confidential nature of a complaint. However, absolute confidentiality cannot be guaranteed owing to the need for an investigation, the need to fully inform the respondent, and the possible duty to inform an Occupational Health and Safety officer, the police or other officials as required by law.

The Town shall not disclose the circumstances related to an incident of workplace Violence, Bullying or Harassment; or the names of the complainant, the person alleged to have committed the Violence, Bullying or Harassment, and any witnesses except when:

- A minimum amount of personal information is necessary to inform workers of a specific, general or potential threat of workplace Violence, Bullying or Harassment.
- Cases of a serious nature; where the employer is obligated by law to contact the RCMP and provide any necessary information.
- Where necessary to investigate the incident or to take corrective action, or to inform the parties involved in the incident of the results of the investigation and any corrective action to be taken to address the incident.

Roles & Responsibilities

Workers

Each worker has a responsibility to ensure that their work environment is safe and secure. Workers must report any violent acts occurring or that may occur in the workplace, including threats and warning signs of violent behaviour. Workers must immediately inform their supervisor if they:

- Have been threatened;
- Have been subjected to a violent act, Bullying or Harassment at work or during the course of their work;
- Have witnessed a threat or violent act, Bullying or Harassment against or by a worker; and
- Have reason to believe that they, another worker, a member of the public or Town property may become the target of Violence, Bullying or Harassment.

Workers who do not feel comfortable reporting the situation to their supervisor can report directly to Human Resources. If a situation presents an imminent threat to a worker's safety, a worker must call 9-1-1 and ask for assistance from the RCMP.

Supervisors

Incidents of Violence, Bullying and Harassment shall be reported by the supervisor or manager, or both, to the Manager of Human Resources to ensure an effective investigation takes place and an appropriate response is developed.

Human Resources must be advised when any legal action, criminal or civil, is related to an incident of Violence, Bullying or Harassment. (e.g: restraining order).

Where an incident of Violence, Bullying or Harassment occurs and the health, safety and welfare of workers or property is at risk, the RCMP need to be contacted immediately to intervene. Once the RCMP have been contacted, Human Resources must be notified.

Investigating and Responding to Workplace Violence

All reported incidents or precursors of workplace Violence, Bullying or Harassment reported to Human Resources, shall be facilitated by Human Resources.

Findings and recommendations identified during an investigation, shall be provided by Human Resources for immediate preventative action.

The Town shall advise a worker who, as a victim of workplace Violence, may be experiencing adverse symptoms as a result of the violent act, Bullying or Harassment that they should consider consulting with a health professional. Services are also available from the Town's Employee Assistance Program (EAP), free of charge.

Consequences of Non-Compliance

Workers failing to adhere to the items contained in this policy shall be subject to appropriate disciplinary action. Appropriate action shall depend on the circumstances of the incident and may range from, but not be limited to, warnings and suspensions, up to and including dismissal. Incidents may also be referred to the RCMP for investigation.

The Town shall take appropriate action to ensure a safe workplace. Contractors, suppliers, volunteers, and members of the public exhibiting Violence, Bullying or Harassment towards our employees will be subject to discontinuation of business with individuals or organizations, issuance of Trespass Notices or the matter being referred to the RCMP.

Policy Review Statement

The CAO or designate(s) shall review this policy at least every three years or more frequently if circumstances dictate, or on the earliest of the following:

- When an incident of harassment or violence occurs
- If the joint work site health and safety committee or representative recommends a review

Acknowledgment and Agreement

I acknowledge that I have read and understand the Workplace Bullying, Harassment and Violence Policy of the Town of Olds. Further, I agree to adhere to this Policy and will ensure that employees working under my direction adhere to this policy. I understand that if I violate the rules/procedures outlined in this Policy, I may face disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.

Name: _____

Signature: _____

Date: _____

Witness: _____